YOU AND THE ARTS

Give us a sense about your relationship with the arts.

QUESTIONS: Is there an arts genre or form you particularly enjoy, and what is it? What arts and cultural events or performances have you attended in the last year? What arts organizations or commissions have you supported as a Board member, volunteer, contribution or season ticket holder. Please list cultural groups and experiences, even if not in Dallas.

In the last year, I have attended events at TBAAL, Dallas Black Dance Theater, local school performances, performances at the Arboretum, South Dallas Cultural Center and the Music Hall. I enjoy performing dance and from a spectator standpoint theater, singing and dance are favorites! I have supported all arts organizations possible while serving as a Park Board member and City Councilwoman.

ADVOCACY

The role of an elected leader is in large part being a cheerleader for the City of Dallas and the things that make our city special. Dallas mayors such as Annette Strauss and Mike Rawlings, and former Councilmember Veletta Lill understood the importance of the arts to the city's economic development, tourism, vibrancy, cultural brand and quality of life. (See attached one-pager.) They made the arts a centerpiece of their agenda and legacy.

QUESTION: What role do you envision for yourself as an elected Dallas leader when it comes to the arts? Where will arts and culture fit within your priorities? And what are the ways you would advocate for the arts in and out of Dallas?

I will be a fierce advocate for the arts when appropriate and I consider the arts as a high priority. It is imperative to stay abreast of what is available in the Arts world and I would share that information with constituents as well as others when visiting outside of Dallas.

EQUITY

The 2018 Dallas Cultural Plan – just approved unanimously by the City Council – placed Equity at the top of priorities for the arts. This includes equity in funding, providing cultural experiences in underserved parts of our city, supporting both the new and emerging arts community as well as our historic institutions. Additional resources will be required to reach this goal.

QUESTION: Given the many needs of the city, how will you support the goal of sustaining and growing the City's current investment in the arts, and ensure the Cultural Plan does not gather dust on the shelf?

As a policymaker, my role would be to ensure that city management is adhering to the cultural plan as promised to all stakeholders. This will require adequate communication with all stakeholders to stay educated on the status/progress. I will support the goal by staying invested in the conversation and lending my voice as an advocate.

HOTEL OCCUPANCY TAX

To help fund its implementation, the Cultural Plan calls for an increase in the arts portion of the City’s Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) to align with peer cities. HOT funds are paid by tourists, not Dallas taxpayers. Currently, 2.6% is dedicated to the arts (about $1.6M.) Houston is 19%, San Antonio is 11%, Austin is 15%.

QUESTION: Would you support a significant increase of the arts portion of the HOT to create and sustain a major cultural tourism marketing program, repairs and maintenance of neglected cultural venues, and increased support for arts programs that add to the cultural vibrancy and attractiveness of Dallas as a destination?

Yes

ARTS IN YOUR DISTRICT

Name three areas of your council district where you think arts and cultural programs and experiences are most needed and would be welcomed the most.

1. In the Pleasant Grove area of the district
2. Buckner Terrace/Parkdale/Lawnview neighborhoods
3. Dolphin Heights
